

Every Breath You Take

by
Bianca Sloane

A dangerous and twisted obsession. A maniac on a mission. A woman unknowingly inching ever closer into the clutches of catastrophe. . .

Natalie Scott leads a quiet and uneventful life; she goes to work every day, enjoys reading, foreign films and spending time with her two good girlfriends. And underneath her shy, careful demeanor, Natalie hides her certainty that love is for girls, “not like her.”

Just when Natalie resigns herself to being alone forever, a handsome, charismatic stranger enters the picture and sweeps her off her feet. For the first time in a long time, she starts to believe in the possibilities of a bright and beautiful future.

However, what she doesn't know is that every minute, she's being watched. Every minute, she's being followed. Every minute, the man who harbors a sadistic and disturbing fascination with her wants to own her body and soul and nothing—and no one—will stand in his way.

In one diabolical act of violence, Natalie's entire world implodes and she finds herself the prisoner of a madman. She's now caught in a perilous game of cat and mouse where the only way to survive is to beat the monster at his own game. . .

EVERY BREATH YOU TAKE is a dark and disturbing thriller that will stay with you long after the last page. . .
